

Pontificia Università Lateranense

Lateran, 11 May 2020

PRESS RELEASE

"No Going Back. The World Economy after Covid-19 Pandemic ". On May 15, at 3.30 pm on the website of the Pontifical Lateran University: www.pul.va, the live streaming public lesson of the economist and Nobel Peace Prize winner Muhammad Yunus.

Prof. Yunus, famous all over the world as the founder of Grameen Bank for having conceived a revolutionary micro-credit system as a fundamental tool in the fight against poverty, will speak about the consequences and impact of Covid-19 on the global economy.

The lesson will be transmitted in live streaming on the portal of the Pontifical Lateran University: www.pul.va, at 3.45 pm on Friday 15 May, to offer the opportunity to the entire academic community to follow this international event live. Simultaneous translation into Italian is provided.

To coordinate the Event is Prof. Raffaele Lomonaco, professor of Political Economy in the Lateran University. The event will be moderated by Dr. Enzo Cursio, Journalist and coordinator of the FAO Nobel Alliance for Food Security and Peace.